CROPS ALL HARVESTED AT RICHMOND CITY

RICHMOND, Sept. 12.—Threshing is practically done around here. The crops of grains have been very good. Hay, however, is scarce as the weevil did considerable damage to the first crop of alfalfa. Several companies have organized and are now busy filling their silos. We have somewhere in the neighborhood of twenty silos.

The Richmond South Y. L. M. I. was reorganized Sunday with Mrs. Ella Thomson, president; Elvera Johnson, first counselor; Clara Johnson, second counselor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tolman are rejoicing over the safe arrival of a baby girl and Mr. and Mrs. David L. Kerr over the arrival of a baby boy.

The general priesthood meeting will be held on the last Sunday of each month instead of the last Saturday as it was previously held.

Saturday Bishop P. N. Nelson and Fred Whittle left for California on business trip. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

Nellie Merrill Johnson who has been very ill is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rigby and children spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Alma Corson.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Larsen and daughter Olga left for Baker, Oregon, to make a short visit. Their daughter Mona, who has been visiting at Baker for the past two weeks will accompany them home.

Both our public and high school will begin Monday, Sept. 16.

Several of our town people attended the funeral services at Smithfield over the remains of the nine-months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey.

Mrs. Pack has received word recently from her son Horace who is now in France. Mr. Pack has been in active service, having served several days in the trenches. He has been "over the top" ten times, was wounded once. At the patriotic meeting Sunday night C. Z. Harris was appointed to send greetings from the people here to Mr. Pack.

Among the many friends and relatives who called informally on Mrs. M. J. Harrison Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Harrison, Mr. Herbert Harrison, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. George G. Hendricks.

Tuesday Lieut. Mazel Merrill who has been home on a short furlough, left for his camp again.

Next Wednesday the Richmond ward Primary will present the play, "The Assembling of the Nations." About one hundred and seventy-five children will take part in the play. Both officers and children are working hard and hope to have a creditable entertainment.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

CONFISCATE PRESENT INDUSTRIES

If the workers were to take possession of the industries—let us say of the mines of the southwest—and exploit them for the common benefit of all, who would replace these mines when they are exhausted? Who would find prospects and develop those prospects into paying properties?

It is reported that agents of the I. W. W. are again carrying on a recruiting campaign in the mining camps, signing up miners through use of persuasive argument of short hours, inordinately high wages and eventual confiscation of mines.

The enrolling agents make their argument more convincing in drawing comparison between wages miners receive and profits accruing to operating companies. They do not mind exaggerating latter figures if true figures are not deemed sufficiently alluring.

They do not mention what is has cost in time, money and nerve to make such profits, or any profits, possible.

No discussion of these absurd arguments would be necessary except for reported activities of this traitorous organization many of whose leaders have just been convicted and sentenced in Chicago.

No worker should be misled by such appeals.

The I. W. W. in western mining and timber states tries to make workers believe its campaign is not traitorous but merely to change working conditions but yet every laboring man look beneath the surface of the confiscation plan, as above indicated, then look back over the record of the I. W. W. since the United States declared a state of war with Germany, and then give every I. W. W. recruiter the answer he deserves.

IS LOVE EVERYTHING? MORE THAN A CAREER?

Is love everything?

Is it more than a career, more than social standing, more than a splendid position in the world?

This is the question that Diana Lester's action in "Stolen Hours" puts up to Hugh Carton, member of the English parliament and candidate for a position in the English cabinet.

This is the question that Hugh solved in a way that brings satisfaction to every person who sees this new World Picture Brady Made and makes the most delightful sort of entertainment.

Ethel Clayton, beautiful, accomplished and charming is the star of this new production. She appears in the role of Diana Lester, the adorable daughter of a gambler, who came to love Hugh better than anything in the world. Never has Miss Clayton had a role in which her pleasing personality and her splendid acting ability were seen to better advantage.

You'll agree with all these high estimates of this play and of the star when you see the picture. And you'll have the opportunity of seeing "Stolen Hours" today at the Oak theatre.

"Stolen Hours" is a pleasing play. It leaves a good taste in the mouth. It sticks in the memory
